

In my opinion, XM Radio's products and services should not be legally changed or limited simply due to the desires of their direct competitors in broadcast radio.

Thanks